State Court Administrative Office

Child Welfare Services Division presents:

Child Abuse & Neglect Mandated Reporter Training

This will be a web-based meeting through Adobe Connect

November 7, 2018

11:00 a.m. – 12:30 p.m.

Description: This training will help mandated reporters of child abuse and neglect to understand their roles and responsibilities under the Child Protection Law. Participants will learn the fundamental aspects of the reporting process, including all procedures and their importance. In addition, participants will be able to recognize signs and symptoms of child abuse and neglect.

Presenter: Steve Munger, Child Welfare Trainer, Michigan Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Workforce Development and Training

Target Audience: mandated reporters (individuals required by law to report child abuse and neglect) including but not limited to medical and health care providers, social workers, counselors, child care providers, clergy and faith leaders, law enforcement, friend of the court staff, school administrators, and teachers.
